

CounselLink Implementations

Adopting an Enterprise Legal Management (ELM) solution can help a legal department manage spend and matters better and more efficiently. But we know that the prospect of implementing a new solution across your entire legal department can seem daunting.

The LexisNexis Professional Services Team has successfully implemented the LexisNexis® CounselLink® ELM solution at more than 200 companies, and its members average more than nine years of CounselLink implementation services experience. Our team manages every CounselLink implementation and will lead you through every step of the process.

The Team

The LexisNexis Professional Services Team comprises highly experienced legal consultants and project managers with specialized expertise in ELM and business process management implementation. Committed to maximizing onboarding efficiency and ensuring project success, the team partners with your internal project team to identify your unique critical business requirements, goals, and constraints and provides best practice recommendations throughout the implementation process.

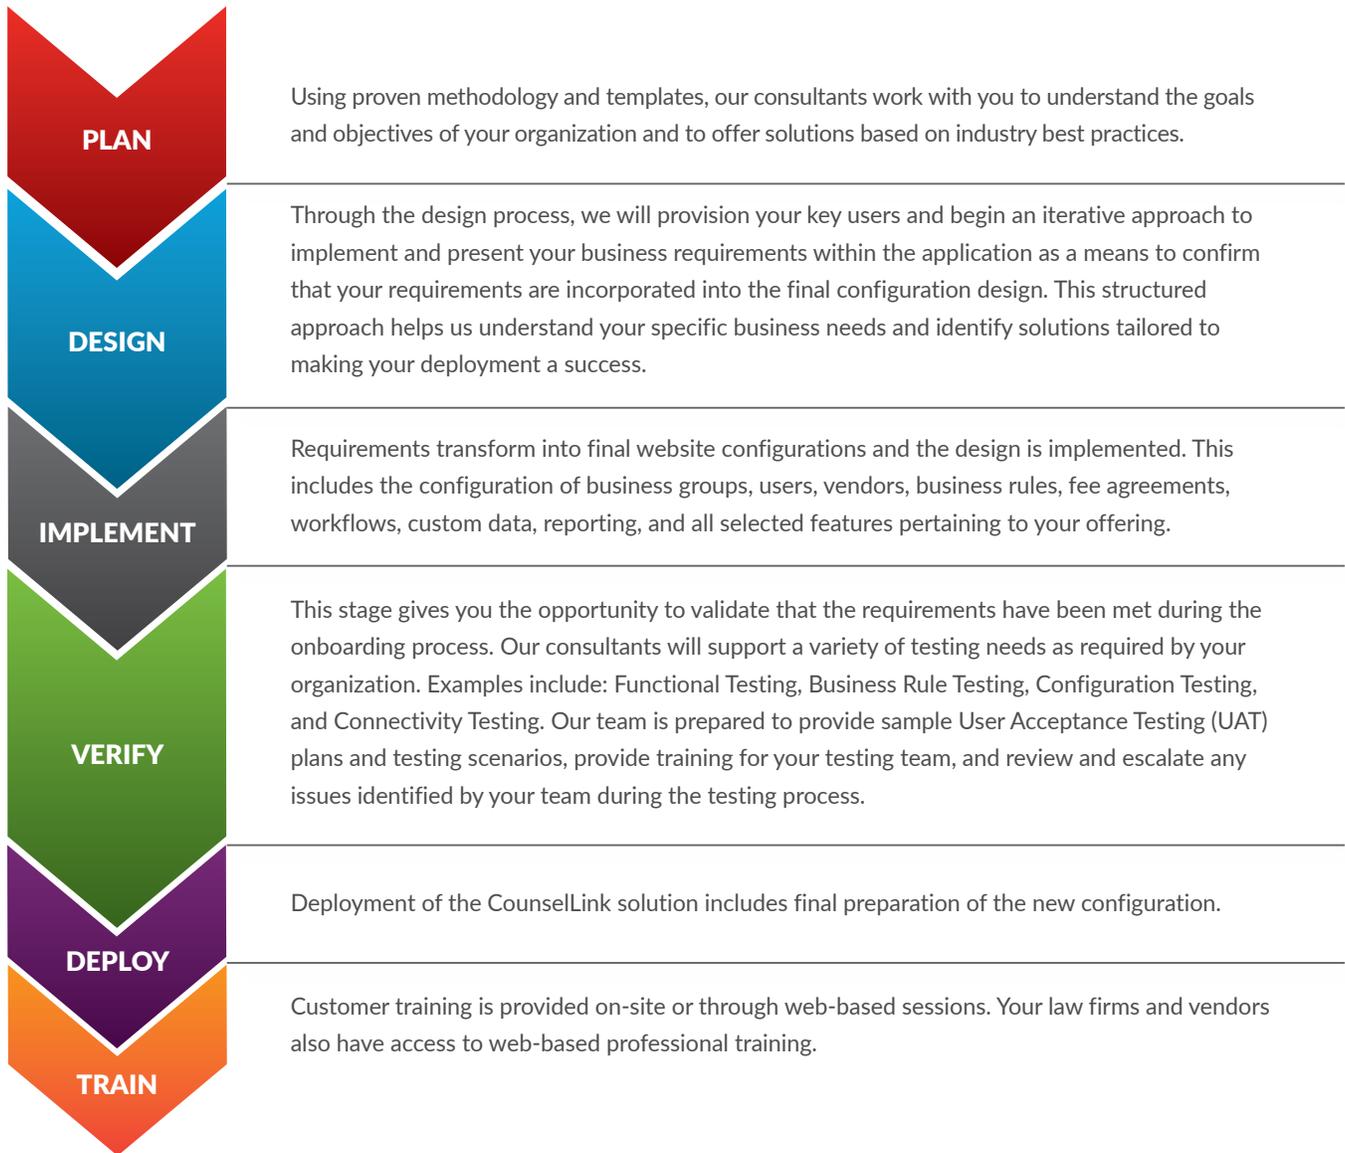

LexisNexis project teams are skilled in effective communication and project management. They ensure success by always including members with the following skillsets:

- Project Management – responsible for coordinating project plan and status meetings, and handles scheduling of data migration and integration tasks, if applicable
- Business Consulting – focuses on business process and system requirements, provides best practice recommendations based on your needs
- Technical Consulting – handles data migration and integration requirements
- Attorney Onboarding – manages law firm communications and transition
- Training – delivers end-user training and consultation

The Process

Leveraging our extensive ELM onboarding, integration, and conversion expertise, our proven methodology enables our team to implement CounselLink to meet the unique needs of every customer, including some of the largest and most complex legal departments in North America.

The LexisNexis Professional Services Team follows a scalable, six-phase project implementation process that conforms to the individual needs of each of our customers:
